

Tilted Towers Mystery

Tilted Towers is a very isolated small community in the middle of nowhere. Its population is only 56 people. The people living in Tilted Towers are very friendly but living in a small place has its disadvantages. Skye and Mayas have been best friends all their lives, they did everything together.

Skye and Maya arranged a sleepover at Maya's house as they had done many times in the past but this time would be very different. Mayas parents had a huge house with many rooms and even hidden chambers but this the girls did not know about. The girls spent the night playing about, talking and watching films as usual. Mayas excused herself for a little while and some time passed and Skye started searching for her. Skye found Mayas murdered body and fainted.

This news shocked Tilted Towers as these kind of crimes never happened there. The whole village was shut down to try and find out what exactly happened. There were no leads and 9 days had passed.

On the ninth day Skye was at home and late in the evening suddenly the lights started flickering. All went dark. The following day Brutus, who was a very good friend of the gang, went to Skye's house to talk to her and found her body lifeless in her bedroom. The mystery continued and still no-one had any idea what was happening. People of Tilted Towers were looking at each other with suspicious looks to one another and this was causing a lot of uneasiness. Brutus suspected Rapter as the person who commit the crime. Rapter was the villain of the community. No-one liked the presence of his family. Rapters family never worked and always complained. They were the Black sheep of the town.

Six days has passed since the killing of Skye in Tilted Towers and still no-one had any idea who might be the murderer. Even Brutus started having second thoughts about Rapter's involvement. Rapter went over to Brutus' house and all seemed well. That is when Rapter told Brutus that the reason for Maya and Skye's deaths was that they helped to put his father into prison and as revenge he killed them. Brutus panicked and wanted to leave his house but was too late. Rapter caught him and killed him as well.

John Wick the Police chief had found proof that Rapter had committed the crimes. John kept this information to himself and wanted to make sure that before word got out about the proof that Rapter was caught first. Rapter had no idea that John was waiting for him at his house. Rapter was caught by surprise and taken to the station. Rapter admitted his crime and was sent to prison and with that the murders stopped in Tilted Towers.

Levente Bus - Foundation 1B English - Year 4