

The London Times

Printed in Cyprus Daily

Reporters: Aili Bielicki and Evelyn

Since 1980

Berengaria Of Navarre

New Queen Has Been Crowned

Long Live The Queen!

After marrying Richard The Lionheart, Berengaria Of Navarre was crowned Queen of England. This moment will forever be remembered in History. During this time of woe, The Third Crusade is happening around us at this moment, this was a happy moment for everyone.

THE FIRST CRUSADE

From 1096 until 1099, the First Crusade took place.

In November 1095, Pope Urban II launched the First Crusade. He gathered many important Churchmen around him and gave a powerful speech. He told stories of Turks torturing Christians, cutting open pilgrims to see if they had hidden gold in their intestines and spreading their blood across holy sites. He begged his audience to help their fellow Christians. These were strong words and they spread quickly amongst the community. Soon enough, 60,000 people were prepared to march to Jerusalem. There were a number of reasons that led people to become the crusaders.

Made with PosterMyWall.com

The Royal Wedding

Richard The Lionheart and Berengaria of Navarre are the newly wed couple. They were married at St. George's Chapel in Limassol, Cyprus. Berengaria's coronation happened to be on the same day as her wedding, making the day twice as special. This day, 12th May 1191, was the day of two greatly historical moments.

Made with PosterMyWall.com